

The time window telemarketers are given to call is too wide. I feel calls made before 9am and anytime on Sunday's are unnecessary. Please consider putting these restriction on the companies making the calls. Consumers want their lives uninterrupted by these calls!